NEWSLETTER October 2021

Notes from the Editor

It has been a while since the last newsletter. It's good to be back at Hatters Space. We have already had several good demo/have a go sessions led by club members, and more are to come. Since we haven't had an external demonstrator, I don't have any pictures from club meetings. So this time, I have included photos from Chestnut Products Woodturning Weekender, held in Canterbury at the start of September. Dubbed the "Northern Invasion", there were four demonstrations held over two days. All demonstrators were from Northern England or Scotland. You all know Emma Cook, as she has demonstrated at the club. There was also Andy Rounthwaite, David Lowe and Rick Dobney. For £10, you can see the highlights, as Chestnut have a live stream video of the event. See their website for details. <https://chestnutproducts.co.uk/woodturning-weekender-2020/> (yes, 2020, when the seminar was supposed to run).

Andy Rounthwaite

By Rob Sheehan

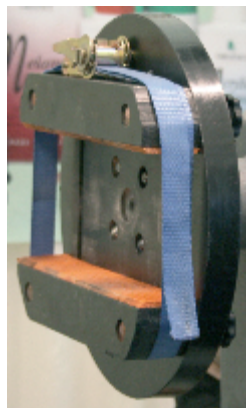

Andy was the first demonstrator on Saturday morning. He turned three pieces of fruit, and told us how he turns bananas (yes, turns bananas). Well partly turns bananas, as a 5 sided ring, and then a lot of sanding. There is also a picture of his home made, wooden fruit-holding chuck.

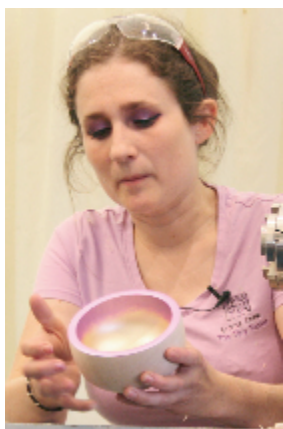

David Lowe was the second demonstrator, on Saturday afternoon. This was his last professional demonstration, as he is retiring from the demonstrator circuit. David did more pieces than anyone else, but I have only included a couple of items.

Rick Dobney was the third demonstrator, on Sunday morning. He showed us how to turn a square box, with multiple off-centre decorations. I have included a picture of his off-centre chuck.

Emma Cook (aka The Tiny Turner) finished off the weekend sessions with her demo on Sunday afternoon.

As I have some space left, I have included a few more pictures. On the Friday before the woodturning seminar, I had a day going round Canterbury. On the Monday after the seminar, I went round Dover Castle (not far from Canterbury) and Walmer Castle (just up the road). I then drove to Margate for tea. Sorry to say but, apart from the sea front, Margate is a dump!
